JUROR'S STATEMENT: It was a pleasure serving as a juror for the December Artists Guild Exhibition. Judging a show that includes a variety of genres and styles of art is both challenging and invigorating. Award winners in this show exhibited the qualities of sustaining the viewer's interest, demonstrating a mastery of the use of elements and principles of design, displaying a highly developed technique in manipulating the medium of choice, and expressing a personal point of view. To all of those who participated I express Congratulations !
